NOTED READER COMING

Ruby Page Ferguson on 1920 Chautauqua Program.

Ruby Page Ferguson, noted reader and interpreter of plays, presents on the second afternoon one of the most delightful features of the week in her monologue interpretation of the comedy, "Green Stockings." Presenting a complete play and doing it so real.

It is likely that the platform fairly seems peopled with characters is an art of the highest order. There are few people on the Chautauqua platform today who can accomplish this difficult thing with the success attained by Miss Ferguson.

IMPORTANT MEETING

There will be an important meeting of the Friends of Irish Freedom at Knights of Columbus' hall Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. All members and others taking an interest in the movement are urged to be present.

WILLIAM RUSSELL AT BUTLER TODAY

"Show With Fire," a romantic love song of the plains, will be the offering at the Butler today. It is an intensely dramatic play produced by William Fox, starring William Russell, and is from the pen of Harold Titus. The story is based upon the absorbing love of a strong man for a woman who is sorely in need of comfort and protection. Handsome, heroic William Russell portrays superbly the character of a man of the plains who faces danger and death for the woman who is dearer to him than life. The action of the play is swift and sure. Big moments, thrilling situations, beautiful scenery, and wonderful expressions of dramatic art make this production one which no one should miss. The scenario was written by J. Anthony Roach, and the play was directed by Emmett J. Flynn. Added to the feature will be another one of those famous two-reel Sunshine comedies, entitled "The Roaming Bathub" with a laugh in every foot.

Tomorrow the beautiful film star, Haine Hammerstein, in "The Woman Game," a photoplay about people and conditions you know—a powerful story of life in any community.

Coming—the big picture—"Male & Female." Watch for it.
